FFF Conference “Restoring the Republic 2008: Foreign Policy & Civil Liberties” Internship Application

The Future of Freedom Foundation is now accepting applications for student internships for our June 6–8 conference, “Restoring the Republic 2008: Foreign Policy & Civil Liberties,” at the Hyatt Regency Reston in Reston, Virginia.

This is an opportunity for students interested in natural rights and limited government to educate themselves on current events relating to the war on terrorism, foreign policy, and the role of government in protecting individual liberty. For more information on the conference, please visit www.fff.org/conference2008.

Interns will assist us at the conference at registration and in additional capacities, but will be able to participate in most of the speeches and activities. Interns will have registration covered (a $495 value which includes all meals Friday through Sunday), which does not include hotel or travel, although FFF can put you in touch with other interns of the same sex with whom you can share a room.

Applications should be made promptly as interns will be chosen soon.

Those students interested in an internship should send the following to Bart Frazier at bfrazier@fff.org.

- Your name, address, telephone number, and email address.
- The name of the school that you attend, your date of graduation, and your major.
- In 200 words or less, tell us why you want to attend the conference.

For more information, please call Bart Frazier at (703) 934-6101.
